For A Dancer

Keep a fire burning in your eye

Pay attention to the open sky

You never know what will be coming down

I don't remember losing track of you

You were always dancing in and out of view.

I must have thought you'd always be around,

Always keeping things clearer by playing the clown

Now you're nowhere to be found

I don't know what happens when people die

Can't seem to grasp it as hard as I try.

It's like a song I can hear playing right in my ear, but I can't sing, I can't help listening

And I can't help feeling stupid standing 'round crying is the easier down cause I know you'd rather we were dancing

Dancing our sorrow away, right on dancin', no matter what fate chooses to play

There's nothing you can do about it anyway

Just do the steps that you've been shown

By everyone you've ever known

Until the dance becomes your very own.

No matter how close to yours another's steps have grown

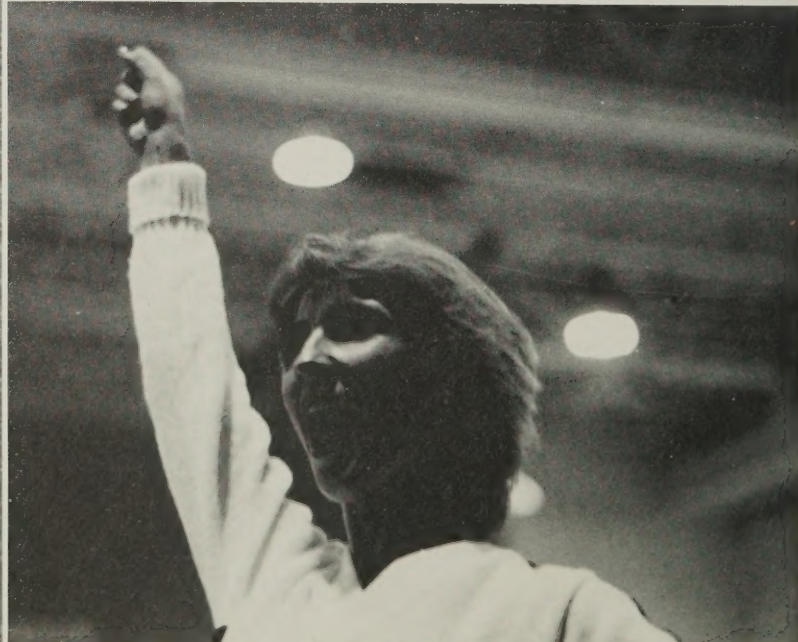

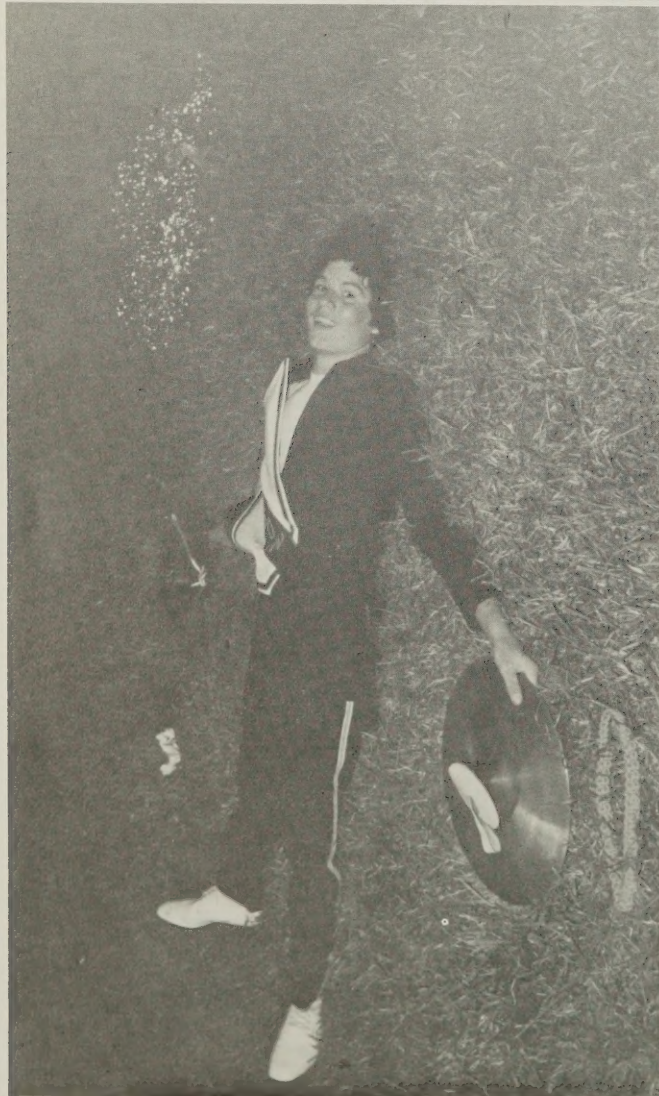

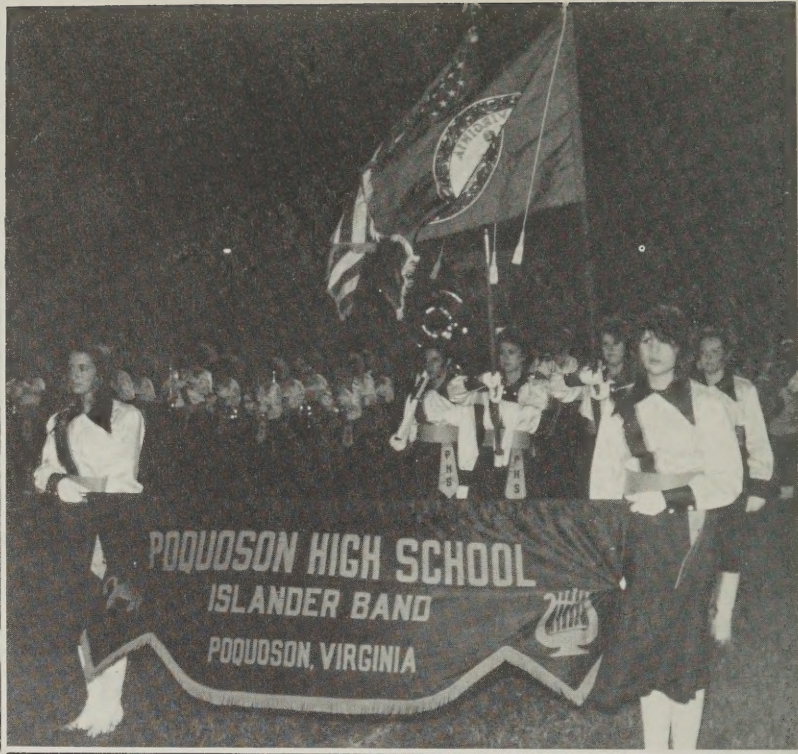

In the end there is one dance you'll do alone.

Keep a fire for the human race

*Let your pride go drifting into space
You never know what will be coming down
Perhaps a better world is drawing near
Just as easy it could all disappear
Along with whatever meaning you might have found Don't let the uncertainty turn you around
The world keeps turning around
Don't it make a joyful sound?
Into a dancer you have grown
From a seed somebody else has thrown
'Go on ahead and throw some seeds of your own
And somewhere between the time
You arrived and the time you go, may Lie a reason you were alive but You'll never know.*

YORKTOWN DAY OCT. 19 1781

YORKTOWN DAY OCT. 19 1981

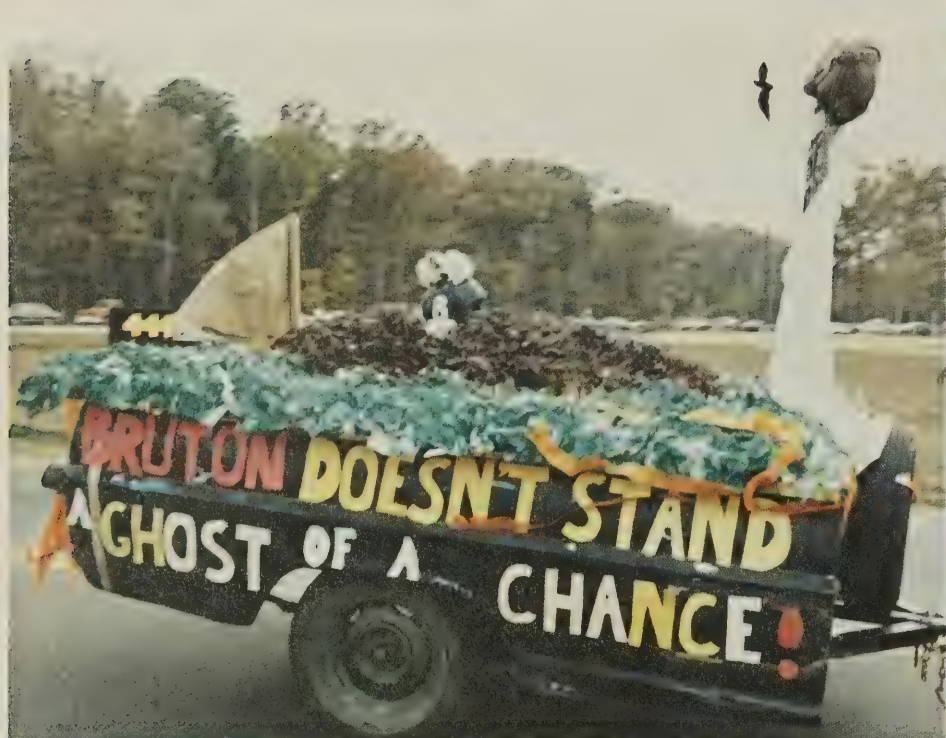

YORKTOWN DAY

On Oct. 19, 1781, the British forces under Lord Cornwallis surrendered to Washington in Yorktown, Va., 200 years later, President Reagan declared Oct. 19, 1981 a state holiday, Yorktown Day. The festivities began Friday, Oct. 16 with a parade including marching bands from as far as Mass., New Jersey, and Maine which represented the countries of Scotland, England, and the United States and France.

Poquoson High School Marching Band and other schools made fine performances to contribute to the festivities.

Other activities included demonstrations by the U.S. Coast Guard, the French and U.S. Navy and a re-enactment of mock colonial battlefield skirmishes. A visit by President Reagan proved a highlight on this holiday and a dramatic fireworks display over the Yorktown monument provided a special entertainment for thousands of spectators. The battlefields were covered by more than the thousands of colonial participants, they played host to many displays of food, acres of pup tents, and the hundreds of unforgettable porta-potties. One display clearly showed higher and more superior than the rest: an enormous hot air balloon with scenes of the American Revolution depicted upon it.

The festival left a lasting impression upon all and we are counting the years until, in 2081, we can all once again share in the remembrances of Yorktown Day.

Freshmen Float

For the first time in years the night of the Poquoson High School Homecoming was beautiful.

The Homecoming Court and float procession took place during halftime.

Monica Holloway won the title of homecoming queen.

The Juniors won the float contest with their Halloween theme "Don't Come Crying To Mummy!" The second place winners were the Seniors with their theme "Bubble, Bubble, Panthers In Trouble!".

The Islander football team edged Bruton with the victory score 7-6 ... NICE WORK BULLS!

HELLO/GOODBYE
This year we had several hellos to give to new teachers. Mrs. Johnson in the French department and Mrs. White and Mrs. Burr in Spanish. Welcome to Poquoson. We had a few sad goodbyes too. Mrs. White was only here for one semester but will still be missed. And Mrs. Esrick who left after four fantastic years will always be remembered by both students and teachers. We are only glad that we were able to have them with us for a time. Goodbye and we miss you.

THE NORFOLKEN TALES

(With Apologies to Chaucer)

by Alan Lytle

Whan Novembre with hes chillee wynde
The paynes of futballe hath reached theyr ende

And bathed every mouth with swich licour
For tis concert tyme, and tis Forenour Whan Ian syng with hes sweete breath
"Jukebox Heroe," and alle the reste
Inspired hath every drunken freake
To flock en masse for to buy a seate
And joyful we alle, maken melodye
Forget Monday's morne, that agonye
So priketh ham Nature in hir corages Thanne youngen folk to goon on pilgrimages

And rowdies for to seken blisful highs
Meet at the cornfield and funnelize
And specially from every shires ende
Of Tydwatre to Norfolkens they wende
The holy blisful rock bande for to seke That they play "Urgent," whan that we were seeke

Bifil that in that seson on a day
In Westover at the cornfield as I lay Redy to wenden on my pilgrimage
To Norfolkens Scope with ful devout corage

Anon was come into that grove of trees
A group of five in a compaignye
Of sondry folk, by adventure yfalle In felawshipe, and drunken were they alle

Of ale we weren the best supplied
And shortly before our mugs hath dried
So hadde I spoken with hem everichon
That I was of hir felawshipe anon
A suggestionne was mayde that we should leave

For Norfolkens Scope, and we alle agreede
To leave anon, but fyrst to stoppe
At Quick-Pick, to renew our stoek
But natheles, whil I have the tyme
Er that I go ferther with this rhyme
Methynketh it acordaunt to resoun
To telle you alle the condicioun
That each one of my fellows weren in
We weren alle blowne, now I'll begynne

There was a FREAK, who walked as blinde
Those evil drogues hath fried hes minde
And in hes coat was a goode supply
Of every pille that one could buy Naught was hes speech, but he was not dumb

at foolish head hath smoked hes tongue
He only bought the best of brands
And hadde smoked many a bowl in heathen
Lande

He was haily dressed and hes name was Zeke
He was a true and perfect Freak

The Freak hath brought hes brother too
A PUNK he was, with hair of blue
Hes face was painted, in hes cheek a pin
He considered "Rock Lobster" a sacred hymn

Ill he looked, with hes shaking so
Said he - "I'm just dancing to Devo"
He wore a Plasmatics shirt and a tie so thin
And mayde methynk, "Are we not men?"

A TEACHER of English was also there
A touch of gray splashed in her hair
She was well refined, and scholarly Drank Chevits Regal with her tea
On English Lit., no equal be
And she lectured with great ferocity
Strict she was, at tymes a martinet
But on the whole one's obliged to say
She acted pleasant, and she be
An asset to our compaignye

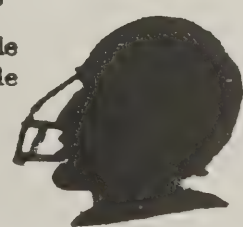

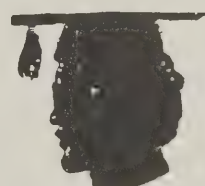

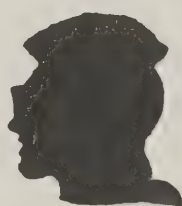

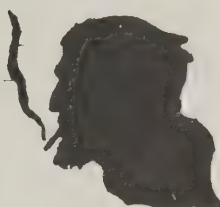

A PREP there was, she looked so cute
In her 'gatre shirt and Gucci boots
In her purse she carried her Preppie book

On how to act, to talk, and look
With her pinkie out, she drank Pink Champale

And said clever sayings like S. O. L.
Speeding around in her lyme-greene car
She'd lean out the window and say,
"Hi, I'm Char"

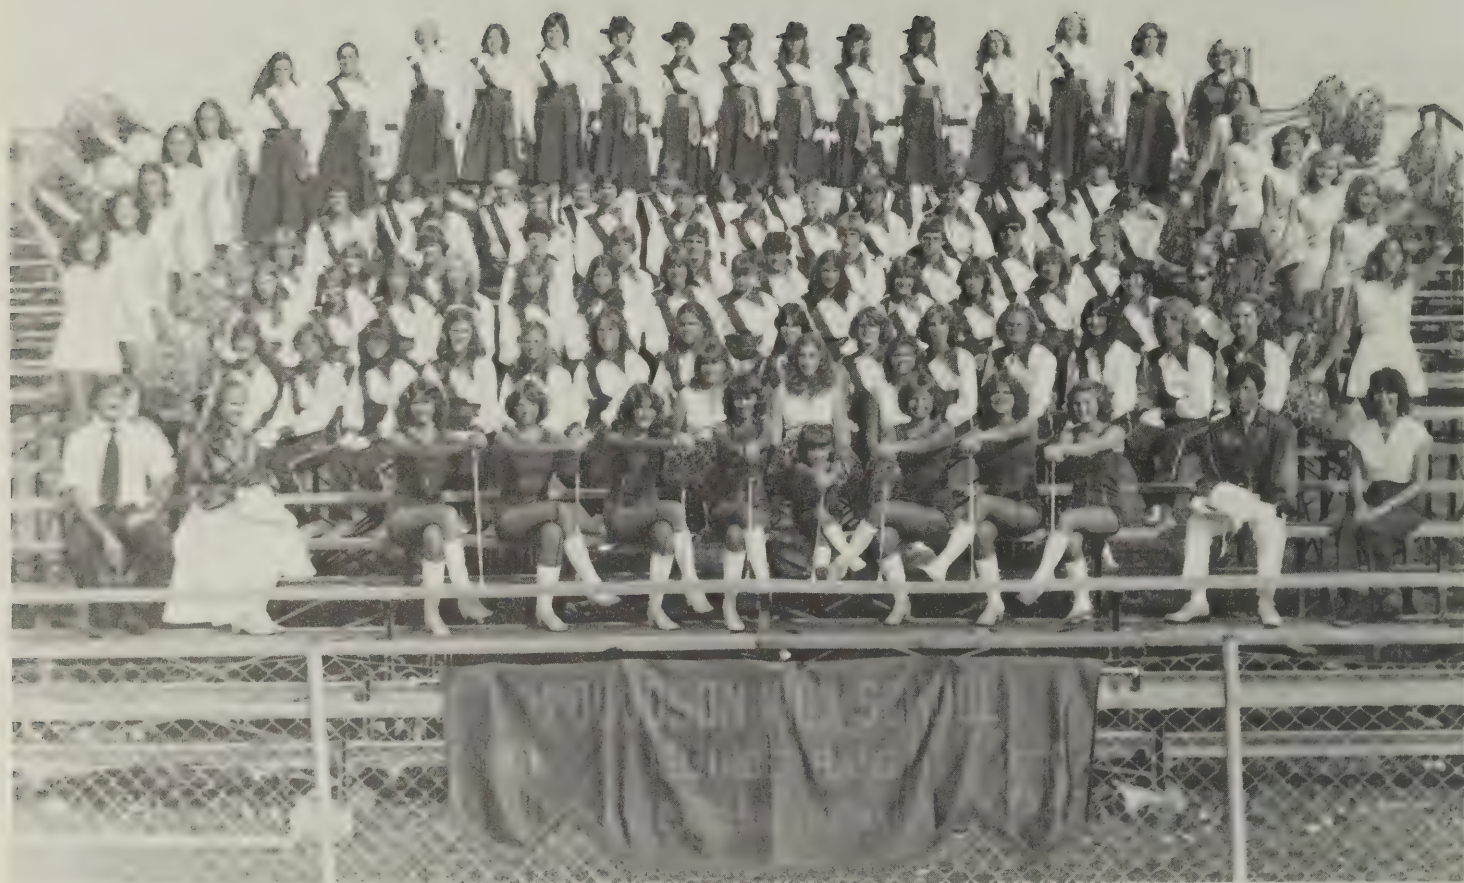

And last of alle there was a JOCK
T'was as proud as any barnyard coq
Of alle hes touchdown passes thrown
Not one big game hath our man blowne
And many freethrows hadde he sunk
Not to mention alle the grande slam-dunks

He wore a jacket with a letter P
For an athlete he was proud to be
He was roisterous and loude, hes name was Chuck
He was a fine and dandy Jock

Cooperative Office Education

Cooperative Office Education is the capstone of a high school student's training program in office occupations. COE refers to a teaching method in an occupational preparation program of vocational education whereby students alternate their school schedule between in-school and on-the-job learning experiences. During the school day, students take required academic subjects, a class related to their occupational preparation program, and are provided released time from school for on-the-job instruction. Students receive instruction on the job in the occupational areas of their career choices. Students are also provided the opportunity to earn while learning, thus enabling them to remain in school through graduation or continue their education at the college level. Cooperative Office Education is based on the principle that on-the-job training, with competent supervision, provides the best learning experience for the student.

Future Business Leaders

Future Business Leaders of America (FBLA) is an organization for any student enrolled in business and office courses at PHS. Its members learn to hold office and direct the affairs of the club, to work with representatives of other organizations, and to compete at regional, state, and national events involving business skills and knowledge.

FBLA activities include service projects such as canned food drives and visits to hospitalized children and elderly people. FBLA also sponsors many promotional activities such as receptions for the vocational advisory council, school board members, and vocational teachers. FBLA members enjoy many social activities such as the annual trip to the March of Dimes Mansion of Terro, participation in the homecoming parade, as well as pizza and skating parties.

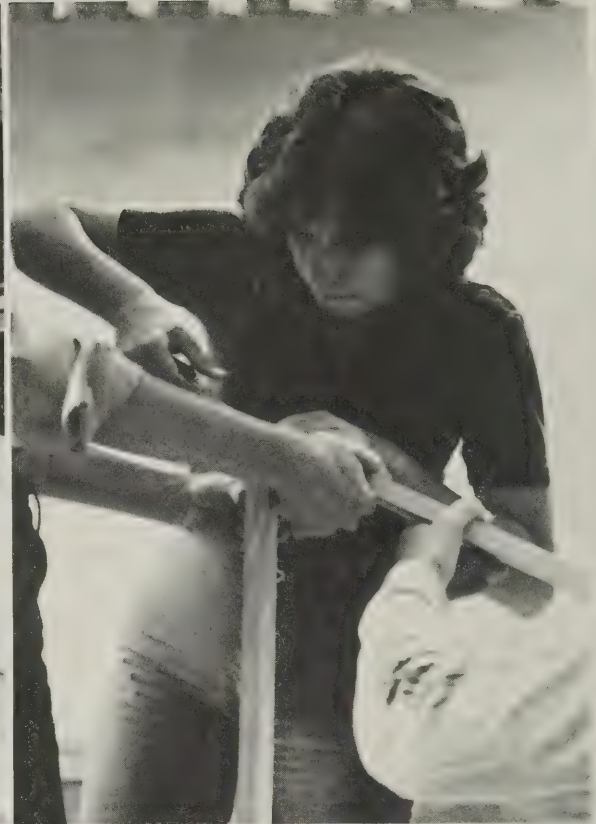

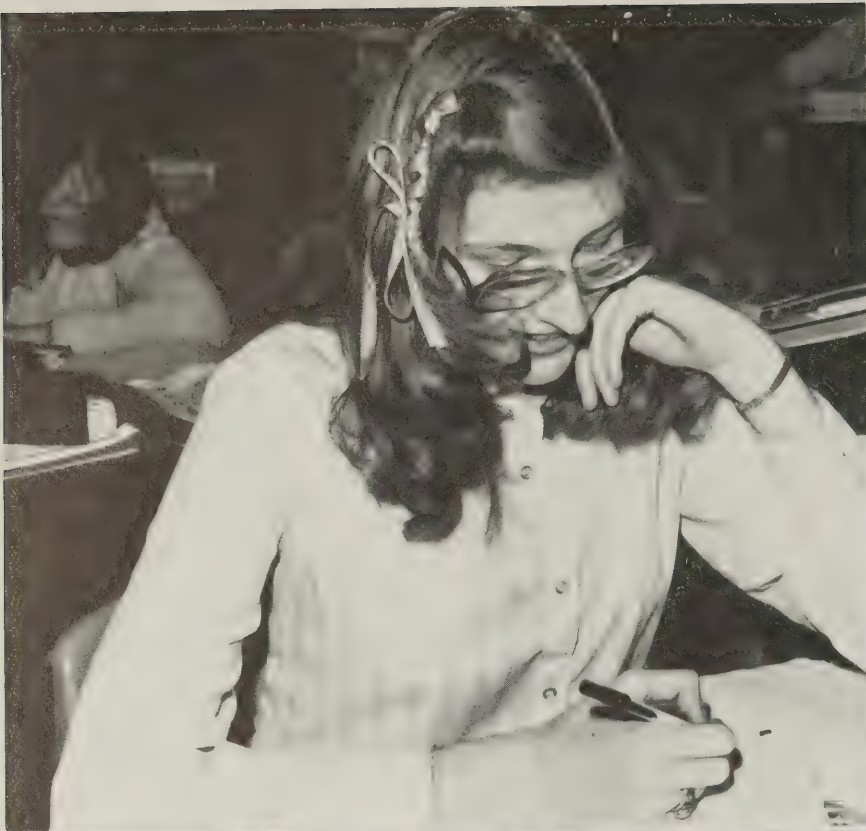

The FBLA officers for 1981-82 are: President — Angela Holloway, Vice President — Cindy Roberts, Secretary — Lisa Kurtz, Treasurer — Dana Ferguson, and Reporter/Historian — Terri Floren.

We're The Class of '82

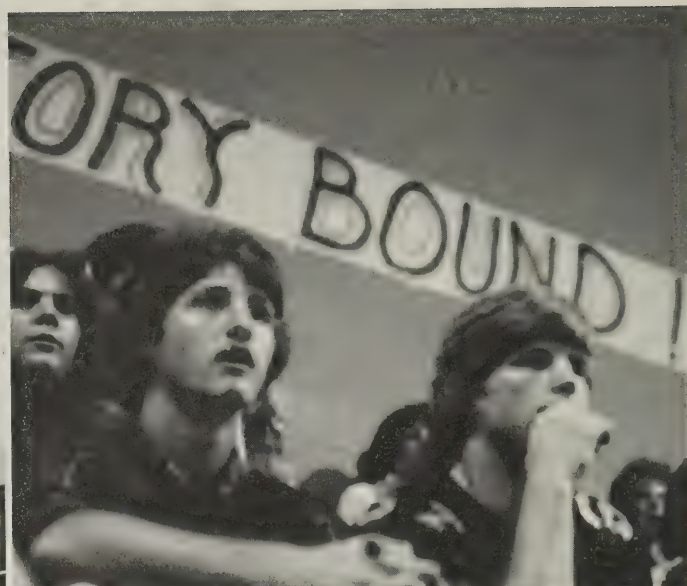

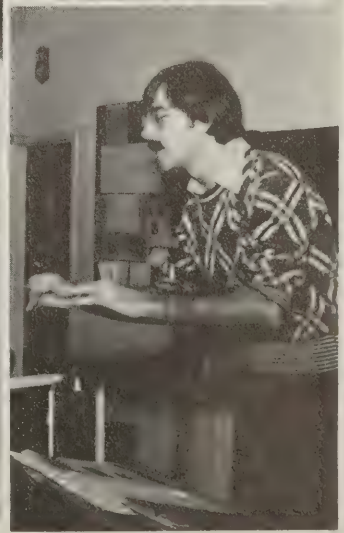

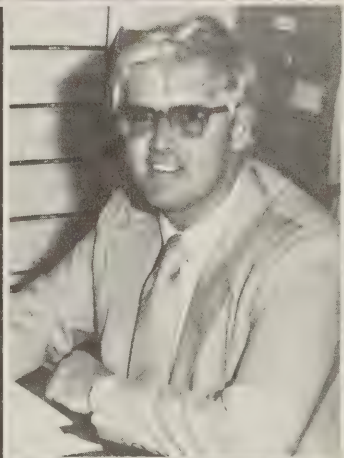

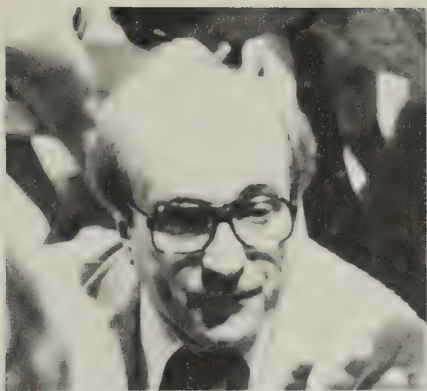

PHS Drama

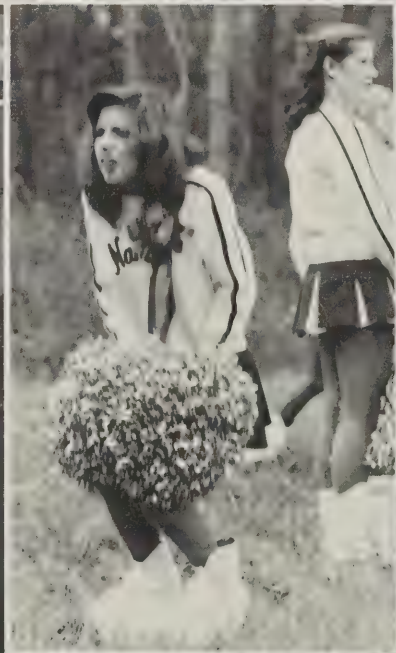

This fall, PHS Drama put on an old Transylvanian favorite, Count Dracula. Mrs. Sproull was in charge and directed set design with the help of students who put in many hours of work. Kevin Wiggins played the part of Count Dracula with a tremendous amount of success. Supporting him were Gail Insley, Matt Sutton, Jeff Lewis, Scott Rollins, Rick Moore, Julie Verser, and Russell Hackney. Alas, Mrs. VanDervort and her team of drama jocks do it again.
